Strong Entrenched Japanese In Hill Positions Hold Up Final Success In Okinawa

"BANZAI" CHARGE OF JAPS EXPECTED

By JOHN R. HENRY
U. S. Staff Correspondent
GUAM, June 11.—Fanatical Japanese resistance, which might erupt into a last gasp "Banzai" charge at any time, met three American divisions pressing a frontal assault today upon the Yaeyu-Dake escarpment on Southern Okinawa.

Front-line fighters said that the Marines and doughboys of the U. S. Tenth Army were held to a virtual standstill by "strongly entrenched Japanese in the hill positions."

Chit Is Hot Spot

International News Service War Correspondent George McWilliams said that the "hottest spot" in the trans-island battle was a 100-foot sheer cliff on the escarpment just west of Tami town which is the center of the next enemy line. He said that the Japanese were firing mortar and machine gun fire from the Seventh Division, which

Chinese Crack Through Outer Liuchow Defenses

CHUNGKING, June 11.—(INS)—Chinese troops cracked through the outer defenses of Liuchow today in a surprise assault against the Japanese-held former American air base in southeast China.

The drive on Liuchow was accompanied by mounting Chinese offensive action in widespread sectors along the Japanese inland line between central China and Indo-China and along the strategic southeast coast.

West of Liuchow the Chinese augmented their recent victories by capturing the city of Ishan, on the trail Kweichow-Kwangsi railway.

North of Kweichow, in Kwangsi province, the Chinese occupied the city of Peishao, 25 miles above Kweichow.

Retake Futing

In battling along the coast, the Chinese retook the Fukien province town of Futing, some 100 miles northeast of the recaptured seaport of Foochow.

U. S. To Use Island As Forward Base For Air, Navy And Submarines

By MAJOR PAUL C. RABORG
U. S. Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 11.—When the present American campaign for the capture of Okinawa is concluded, that island will without doubt be the greatest American Pacific forward base. That means for air, navy and submarines.

The battle for Okinawa has been in progress 21 days.

Almost a thousand Japanese have been killed per day.

In the assault on Japan and two China, the Japanese garrisons were small, smaller than the thousand on the island and 40,000 on the coast. The fighting on these two islands lasted a month or so.

It has been reported that six American divisions have been committed to fight against the Japanese garrison of approximately 60,000 men on Okinawa. And in the seven weeks of combat 10,000 American fighting men have been reported as killed on that island and 28,000 wounded. Never has the war against the Japanese enemy been more deadly than on the island of Okinawa.

The Japanese have been reported as killing 10,000 Japanese and 28,000 wounded. Never has the war against the Japanese enemy been more deadly than on the island of Okinawa.

New Bomb Raids Smash Military Targets In Tokyo

B-29 Bombers Strike At Aircraft Factories And Air Bases In Latest Raid

FIGHTER PLANES BLAST AIRFIELDS

By KENNETH McCALLER
U. S. Staff Correspondent

GUAM, June 11.—Between 250 and 300 Superfortresses were revealed today to have "substantially damaged" five industrial and military targets in Japan—three of them in the Tokyo area—in yesterday's attack.

Preliminary reports available at headquarters of the 21st bomber command indicated that "good results were achieved in the demolition bombing of three aircraft factories, a large airplane base and an army air depot."

Measures to moderate air raid effort were reported by the returning B-29 command, which also said that Japanese aerial interference was "weak." One Superfortress was missing.

Hit Target Area

Elements of the Superfort B-29, which concentrated on the Hitachi engine works at Sakai, Japan, 115 miles south of Tokyo, dropped their bombs with telling effect. The bombs caused the factory to be hit by a direct hit, causing at least 200 bomb hits being noted on the sprawling industrial and adjoining railroad yards.

Other targets in Japan, the Hitachi aircraft plant, 50 miles south of Tokyo, the Daiichi plant, five miles south of Yokohama, and the Daiichi plant, five miles south of Yokohama, were also hit.

Daniels Opposes Peacetime Draft

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(INS)—Josephus Daniels, World War I secretary of the navy, today condemned the proposed peacetime draft as an attempt to "Hitlerize America."

Daniels, testifying before the house postwar military policy committee, declared that compulsory military training has little support throughout the nation.

"The apparent sentiment for departing from American preparedness does not exist in the hinterland of America," he asserted.

"Most of it is pumped up. Outside of Washington and official military circles there is little demand for this radical departure from a system of government that has been our sound foundation in all our history."

The former navy chief in Wilson's cabinet advocated as the best protection for the United States, "the most powerful navy in the world," with "the main emphasis on a navy that flies."

"If our country dominates the sky," he said, "no enemy can land on any part of our terrain."

Women Are Struck; Purses Snatched

Several Youths Who Use Stolen Car Are Accused Of East Side, North Hill Thefts

Several women were struck and robbed of purses between 11:35 p.m. Sunday and 1 a.m. today on the East Side and North Hill, according to police reports. Police believe the youth, who used an auto to carry on the outrages are also the same who committed similar acts June 2.

Two of them struck and robbed Misses Elizabeth Pander, Brooklyn avenue, and Mildred Stewart, Pine street, in Spruce street at 11 p.m. Both purses contained money. Miss Pander also lost valuable documents.

At 12:40 a.m. today a North Hill woman was struck and robbed of her purse at Wallace avenue and North Jefferson street. She told police that while she did not wish to divulge her name, she would appear against the youth if captured.

Today police stated it was their belief the youths stole a car owned by Andy Thumans, North Beaver street, to carry on the theft attacks. It was found abandoned Sunday in Lawrence street.

F. O. Reichard To Visit Friends Here

Former Local Pilot, Shot Down
Over Sardinia, Now Visiting
Parents In Florida

Flight Officer Carl Reichard, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Reichard of 356 First street, North, St. Petersburg, Fla., former residents of the East Brook road, has arrived at his home there after having spent almost two years in German prison camps. He was shot down over Sardinia on July 3, 1943. He was confined in Stalag 1-A at Moosburg. He expects to visit friends here soon.

His last period of incarceration was at Stalag Luft 3. Those who refused to give any information to the Germans after being taken prisoner were placed on a bread and water diet in solitary confinement. He relates, and some were kept there as long as three months, particularly those who claimed to be civilians and tried to escape through the underground.

Three other brothers are still in service. Sgt. Jack is in the Philippines, where he has been since D-Day. Richard, with the 202nd Combat Engineer, who built the longest pontoon bridge in the world over the Rhine in nine hours, and Sgt. Thomas, still with the old 196th Field Artillery.
